TOP STORY

Descartes highlights advanced wireless solutions

By Wendy Leavitt, director of editorial development

Descartes Systems Group chose its Global User Group Conference in Atlanta this week to highlight the company's advanced Wireless Global Logistics Network (wGLN) solutions.

HEADLINES

Cheetah adds Turnpike OBC

Cheetah Software Systems, a software as a service (SaaS) provider offering routing and dispatch applications for cell phones and PDAs, will integrate those applications with RouteTracker, an on-board recorder from Turnpike Global Technologies.

New to QSI Corporation's TREQ family of rugged mobile data terminals the compact TREQ-M4 offers robust features at an affordable price. Created for systems integrators, the TREQ-M4 is the ideal in-cab hardware for all your fleet management applications. Start your integration today.

SOFTWARE

Broker software accesses safety checks

Hosted management software for freight brokers from Aljex Software now integrates with SaferWatch, a subscription service that provides access to Federal carrier safety histories.

Decisiv version for Freightliner owners

National fleets that primarily use Freightliner trucks can now tap into a customized software package geared to help them better manage the maintenance needs of their vehicles. The new fleet-facing Freightliner version, dubbed Decisiv Service Management Platform 5.1 (DSMP 5.1) is designed to provide improved communication with service locations to help increase asset utilization.

Navman upgrades online tracking system with OnlineAVL2

New reports that offer a snapshot of overall fleet operations lead the new features for OnlineAVL2, an online vehicle tracking and logistics system from Navman Wireless North America. Data for OnlineAVL2 is supplied by the company's Qube in-vehicle satellite tracking hardware, which supports street level mapping, geofencing, two-way messaging and driver activity reporting.

ODFL goes fleet-wide with PeopleNet

In an effort to get ahead of the technology curve when it comes to electronic logbooks -- yet also gather critical operating data more easily-- LTL carrier Old Dominion Freight Line (ODFL) said it is installing PeopleNet's fleet-management system on its 5,100 trucks.
